

Dept. of Bengali

History

Year of Establishment : General - 2012

Honours – 2013

Seat Capacity : Honours – 22 (From 2021)

About the department

The department of Bengali Language and Literature has been running with enthusiasm to nurture human resource by various ways of learning and intellectual activities. The department has been growing day by day with the effort of all the stakeholders. Under the guidance of the faculties, every year, students of the department used to take part in various creative activities. Apart from covering the prescribed syllabus dept. organizes meeting with various writers, dept. seminars, publish wall magazine. The academicians and faculty members of the department are always enthusiastic to help the students in every possible way.

Program Specific outcomes

PSO1- After conceptual understanding, gathering subjective and objective knowledge about history of Bengali language, specific classic Bengali literature work, linguistics, theoretical approach, rhetorics, rhythm, poetics- a student's critical, rational and constructive thinking will improve which they can use it in higher studies and in practical also.

PSO2- Their pronunciation, communication power, vocabulary of Bengali words got better, so their employability chances increases in mass communication related fields.

PSO3- Students got enthusiastic towards future research work by way of facing various projects.

PSO4- Humanities/ Human values developed in their outlook.

Course Outcome

CO1- Students can acquire knowledge about History of Bengali literature, some classical Bengali literary poems, epics- from which they can develop their idea on old and medieval Bengali literature'

CO2- After gathering knowledge of Bengali rhythm, rhetorics students' ability to implement the same got better. Their concept about modern Bengali literature increases.

CO3- By reading some classical Bengali novels, short-story, poem, essay they can classify the same and their perceiving ability get flourished.

CO4- Students came to know about the structure of various branches of Bengali literature.

CO5- Idea about linguistics and poetics got developed.

CO6- Idea about 'Rabindra literature' got developed.