

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION (GENERAL)
PROGRAM OUTCOME, PROGRAM SPECIFIC OUTCOME AND COURSE OUTCOME

PROGRAM OUTCOME :

1. Students are able to develop curriculum as per the need and requirement of society.
2. Develop their ability to evaluate, interpret and apply what they learn in real life situations.
3. They acquire the ability to learn the various theories of education, perceiving the society meaningfully.
4. Students have the ability to understand major issue faced by Indian Education at various stages of education.

PROGRAM SPECIFIC OUTCOME :

1. Students are able to solve educational problems using critical thinking and efficiency.
2. Develop their personality there by showing humanity.
3. They will be able to work effectively in various areas of teaching – learning process.
4. Students can stand at their own feet with confidence in the future.

COURSE OUTCOME :

Semester I – Education and Society:

Students will understand the importance of education for social change in a diverse social context, appreciate the importance of education as a social sub – system and how other sub – systems affect education.

Semester II – Educational psychology:

Students acquire knowledge about the application of educational psychology in teaching – learning process. Students will learn about various methods used to study individual behavior. They will understand the intimate relationship between education and psychology.

Semester III – History of Education in India:

Students will develop an understanding of the Evolution of the education system in India. They will be well acquainted with the historical development of Indian Education through the ages.

Semester IV – Measurement, Evaluation and Statistics in Education:

Students gain the ability with the fundamental of statistics. They understand how to calculate mean, median and standard deviation. They develop an understanding of the technique of different measuring tools and techniques involved in measurement and evaluation.

Semester V – Thoughts and Ideas of Great Educators:

Students are equipped with the education thoughts and ideas of great educators both Indian and Western. They develop an ability to know the various theories and practice of Indian education.

Semester VI – Project Writing:

Students acquire sufficient knowledge and increase their learning experience, gain new creative ideas and prepares the students to write a project or research papers.