

Department of Kokborok

Establishment : 2013

Dept. of Kokborok started from the year 2013. Student can opt for kokborok as an elective subject. Initially it started with a seat capacity of 20, later with the demand of the student it increases to 50. Kokborok Language is a branch of Tibeto-Burman Language. It has been recognized as one of the official language of Tripura since 1979. Faculty of this department always encouraged student to contribute for the purpose of flourishing the language apart from the syllabus study.

Program Specific outcomes

PSO1- After gathering subjective and objective knowledge about history of Kokborok language and Literature, Historical Development of Kokborok, some eminent artist's Kokborok literature work, Kokborok grammar, translation & transcription- a student's critical, rational and constructive thinking will improve which they can use it in higher studies and in practical also.

PSO2- Their pronunciation, communication power, vocabulary of Kokborok words will get better, so their employability chances increases in mass communication related fields.

PSO3- Students got enthusiastic towards future research work by way of facing various projects.

PSO4- Humanities/ Human values developed in their outlook.

PSO5- Kokborok language will get flourished by students involvement.

Course Outcome

CO1- Students can acquire knowledge about History of Kokborok language & literature which includes Poetry, Prose & Drama.

CO2- Student will gather knowledge of Kokborok Poetry including contemporary poems. It will inculcate their poetic thinking.

CO3- By reading some classical Kokborok novels, short-story, poem, essay they can classify the same and their perceiving ability will get flourished.

CO4- Students came to know about the structure of various branches of Kokborok literature.

CO5- Idea about linguistics will get developed.

CO6- Idea about 'Translation, Transcription' will get developed.